PUTS CARRANZA ON A HIGH PEDESTAL

General Cabanillas Declares That His Chief Is An Emancipator

HE IS NOT SEEKING TO ROB THE WEALTHY

Plans to Give Both Rich and Poor An Equal Chance In Mexico

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—General G. M. Cabanillas, a Carranzista general, who is here recovering from wounds, in an interview this morning declared that "Carranza some day will be praised by Americans as they praise Lincoln now."

He asserted that a campaign of falsehood and lies, which had been spread throughout America, placed Carranza in the role of a common bandit who is seeking to despoil the Mexican land owners of their holdings. Carranza he declared, plans to give the wealthy land owner an equal chance with other people, but he will not let them exploit to the detriment of the poor. The first motto of his chief is "equality for all, irrespective of wealth or creed."

General Cabanillas stated that American intervention will avail nothing, declaring "peace will come quicker to my troubled country if Mexico is allowed to work out its own destiny."

STEALS FORTUNE; CONFESSES; IS IN PRISON

Trusted Employee L. A. Investment Co. Admits He Is Thief

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 18.—Confessing to forgeries which netted him $13,000, Fred R. Emery, a trusted employee of the Los Angeles Investment Company, prominent society man, former Pasadena polo player and social favorite, is in jail here. He admits that he "blew" the money in spending it extravagantly for high living and automobile hire.

Emery was given his position by the Elder board of directors early in 1913. Prior to that he had worked for several Pasadena real estate men. It is said he was an acquaintance of William St. John Ranney, former chief clerk to the auditor of the Santa Fe, now serving a term in prison for crimes strikingly like those of which Emery is accused.

The forgeries were committed through the insurance department of the company of which he was manager. His method was to make fraudulent returns of large policies written for supposed clients and present demands on the company from the general agents of the insurance companies for the premiums. Relying on Emery's report that the client was good, the company's officers would draw a check, payable to the agent. In theory, if the client being so carried temporarily failed to pay the premium, the company would have the insurance agent cancel the policy and refund the premium on it. In practice, Emery is said to have forged the name of the payee on the back of the check, signed his own name beneath and received the money from the bank.

Emery has a wife and two children and lived at 160 South Gramercy Place.

BURGLAR STEALS WATCH, CASH

While Mrs. C. F. Eisele was at work in the orchard in the rear of her home, 2218 Santiago street, yesterday afternoon at about 4 o'clock a burglar entered the house and stole a watch, $7 in cash, some small change, and three pocket knives.

The theft was reported to police headquarters at 4:45 yesterday afternoon. The timepiece is a ladies' 15-jewel watch with an Elgin movement, No. 10572550 and case No. 1857804. On the back is engraved the name "M. A. Blackwood." One of the pocket knives has a pearl handle and another a tortoise shell handle. A black leather card case and a necktie holder were also stolen.

D'ARTIGUENAVE RECOGNIZED
WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—The new government in Haiti, headed by President D'Artiguenave, has been accorded formal recognition by the United States.

MRS. ELIZABETH NICHOLS, aged sixty, who was left about $2,000,000 on the death of her husband, recently, was killed in her costly home in the Fifth avenue section of New York the other night by three masked burglars. They believed she kept in her room jewelry worth $100,000 or more; they got about $5,000 worth. Onnie Talas (shown in the upper small picture), a hall boy, has confessed to the New York police he let in the robbers, and submitted to being gagged. Edith Langfield (the lower small picture), the maid, was also gagged, but not until the robbers threatened to kill her.

BISHOP CONATY IS SUDDENLY SUMMONED; DIES AT CORONADO

SAN DIEGO, Sept. 18.—Bishop Thomas J. Conaty of Los Angeles, died very suddenly today at Coronado. He came to Coronado recently seeking rest. He had been in poor health. Miss Lynch, his niece, was at his bedside at the time of his death.

Out of respect for the deceased, Catholic day, scheduled to be observed at the exposition tomorrow, has been postponed until October 24. Catholics had gathered here from all parts of Southern California ready to celebrate.

Bishop Conaty was born in Ireland, August 1, 1847. He was ordained in 1872; in 1896 he was appointed rector of the Catholic University in Washington and in 1901 was elevated to the episcopacy with the title Bishop Samos. Cardinal Gibbons consecrated him. He was appointed to the See of Monterey and Los Angeles March 27, 1902. He had long been identified with educational and social movements throughout the country.

Arrangements for the funeral have not been announced.

PUTS ANDERSON ON BOARD OF MANAGERS

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 17.—John N. Anderson of Santa Ana has been appointed by Governor Johnson a member of the board of managers of the new state hospital at Norwalk, Los Angeles County. The hospital will be ready for occupancy January 1, 1916. Other members of the board are Dr. Bernard Bennetts, Mrs. Florence Collins and Sidney A. Butler of Los Angeles, and George D. Jennings of Covina.

John N. Anderson is state senator from this district. He bears an excellent record as a faithful, hard working, efficient public official. At one time he was a member of the board of managers of the state school at Whittier, and at present he is state inheritance tax appraiser for Orange county. The compensation for each member of the board is $10 a day and expenses for attendance at meetings.

BILLION DOLLARS GOLD OUTPUT CALIFORNIA

State Has Contributed This Much to World's Supply of Yellow Metal

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18.—California has added over $1,000,000,000 to the world's gold supply since 1848, declared W. L. Saunders of New York, president of the American Institute of Mining Engineers, in an address delivered at the Panama-Pacific exposition yesterday. Mining Engineers' day. "It has been estimated the actual value of gold deposits should be multiplied eight times to get their true value in credit and capital," Saunders continued. "If this is true, California has contributed in gold alone over twelve thousand millions of dollars to the capital wealth of the United States."

"California was born a mining state, and received its baptism in the south fork of the American river when John Marshall discovered gold in 1848. That was the beginning of the golden age for California and for the world. The golden age means more than the age of gold. It is the age of progress and industrial renown and wealth. These things were made possible through means afforded by the mining engineer who has multiplied and replenished the world through subduing it. Mining low-grade ore at low cost on large scales, and the ore reduction and treatment through metallurgy are the accomplishments of the mining engineers of today."

WELL KNOWN PASADENA WOMAN PASSES AWAY; WAS FAMOUS NURSE

PASADENA, Sept. 18.—Elizabeth Fleming, aged 82, who sixty years ago was one of the heroic volunteer nurses in the New Orleans yellow fever epidemic, is dead here. Mrs. Fleming, then a beautiful Baltimore girl, volunteered as nurse in the yellow fever service and went to New Orleans with a big company of volunteers. She was the only one of the whole party returning alive, all the others having died from the disease and fright. Many dropped dead without any signs of illness. Mrs. Fleming returned to her home city and married. She lived in New Orleans during the reconstruction period after the Civil war.

SEEK TO SAVE LIFE

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18.—The Methodist Episcopal Church of California, in annual conference here, adopted a resolution to present a petition to Governor Johnson praying him to spare the life of E. T. Oxnard, under sentence of death for murder, but who has been granted a reprieve until November 19. The murderer is the son of a minister.

EX-PRESIDENT TAFT SPEAKS AT DEPOT

"Know After a Time What Hurts You" His Only Reference to Politics

CROWD GREETED FORMER NATION'S EXECUTIVE

Beautiful Bouquet Presented By Mrs. A. J. Lawton—Speech From Auto

Ex-President William H. Taft delivered a short address to a crowd of several hundred people that had gathered at the Santa Fe depot at 11:40 o'clock this morning. First he was presented with a beautiful bouquet of zinnias. Then came his address, and he was taken away by P. A. Stanton of Los Angeles in an automobile to Seal Beach, where the ex-President lunched with Stanton. He went to Los Angeles by automobile from Seal Beach this afternoon.

Ex-President Taft was traveling alone when he stepped off the train here, coming from San Diego, and was met by Stanton and Assemblyman J. C. Burke. A colored porter was carrying his grip. Believing that his arrival was unheralded, the former President of the United States was surprised to find a big crowd of people at the depot. In the crowd, the porter was unable to make headway. The train was pulling out when the porter dropped the baggage and made a run. He found the entrance let down, but knocked and was admitted. Stanton's automobile driven by Jack Bushnell of Los Angeles, was backed up to the curb. As the ex-President approached he was introduced to Mrs. A. J. Lawton, who presented him with a bouquet, saying that it was a token of welcome from the Republicans of Orange county.

Accepting the bouquet, Mr. Taft turned to the crowd.

"Ladies and gentlemen of Santa Ana and Orange county," said he, "this greeting is a complete surprise to me. I thank you for coming here to greet me. I am sure you do not want a political speech here, and here in the sun I expect that the shorter the speech the better it will please you."

"This is a grand country in which to live, and I congratulate you upon such an energetic and picked population. You sometimes overdo things it seems to me, but I am glad to see that you have the discretion and the good judgment and the absence of proud opinion to know after a time what hurts you."

"This was taken by the crowd as a reference to the tariff."

"I hope often to come to this part of the country. I love to see what man can do with Nature. In no country in the world is it shown so well how what appears to be a God-forsaken country can be transformed. You are in the habit of seeing these brown hills. To those of us from the East where Nature does most of the irrigation, the changes wrought here are a perfect revelation of what energy and foresight can do. I don't wonder that you are a self-confident people. Goodbye and good luck to you, and I hope to see you again."

MILLIN IS APPOINTED

AUTO STALLS ON TRACK; DRIVER IS INJURED

Fullerton Tries to Pull An Auto Off Tracks Near Serra; Train Comes

In trying to save an automobile from being struck by a train on the Santa Fe tracks south of Serra yesterday afternoon, Thomas B. Cooper, aged 69, of Fullerton, sustained a broken rib and painful bruises when the automobile was hurled against him by the train.

With Cooper were three others. In some manner Cooper's automobile became stalled directly on the tracks. The occupants of the car jumped out. Seeing the Santa Fe train approach from the south, Cooper did his utmost to pull the automobile off the tracks. In this he was unsuccessful. The automobile was between him and the train. When the train struck the machine Cooper was thrown violently to the ground.

Cooper and his friends were placed aboard the train and taken to Fullerton.

SERIOUS INTERNAL TROUBLE IN ENGLAND WILL FOLLOW DRAFT

Amalgamated Railway Union Serves Notice On Government Should Conscription Be Ordered

LONDON, Sept. 18.—The executive committee of the Amalgamated Union of Railway Servants has notified the government that any attempt to force an army conscription would result in serious internal troubles. The unions, which represent 300,000 men, unanimously endorsed the speech of J. H. Thomas, labor member of Parliament, in which he predicted that civil war would follow conscription. The unions congratulated Thomas and condemned "all pro-conscription agitation." The secretary of the organization has been instructed to call a special meeting immediately if the government introduces a conscription bill.

The London papers devote columns to the report that several ministers have threatened to quit unless the government accedes to the demands for conscription. The majority expressed the opinion that Premier Asquith and Balfour were competent to frustrate any attempt to force the government's hand.

INDEMNITY BOND WILL COST $100 EACH JITNEY

Will Not Force Any Stages Out of Business, Is the Present Belief

That the $10,000 indemnity bond required of each driver of a jitney bus under the provisions of the new ordinance which goes into effect in Santa Ana on Saturday, October 9, will cost approximately $100 in each case, was learned today at the offices of City Attorney G. H. Scott, with whom representatives of indemnity companies have been conferring recently in regard to the proposed bonds.

Though no indemnity bonds have yet been filed with the city clerk preliminary to applications being made to the city council by the jitney drivers for permits to operate jitneys, as provided in the new ordinance, it is not thought that this indicates that any of the jitney drivers consider the cost of $100 for each bond prohibitive.

Inasmuch as both the Star and Crown lines of stages have made arrangements that they have arranged for downtown depots at which they will load and unload passengers, it is believed that the drivers of cars not associated with either of these two lines will also take out the indemnity bonds. In other words, it is not believed that any of the jitneys will be forced out of business by reason of having to secure the indemnity bonds. The ordinance requiring the jitneys to get off the streets goes into effect Monday.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—The Rockefeller offices refused to comment on the report that the Rockefellers plan to sell the Colorado Fuel & Iron Company properties to James J. Hill on account of Colorado labor troubles.

PEACE CONFERENCE UNRAVELING A TANGLE

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—The Pan American Peace Conference on convening may appoint a commission to investigate General Carranza's claims that a Mexican provisional presidency is the solution of the Mexican question. The tangle seems nearer unraveled than at previous sessions and diplomats manifested more optimism. No candidate will be recommended for the presidency at this meeting.

HARMLESS BOMB SENT TO NEW YORK WORLD

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—The New York World, recently active in German exposures, received a harmless "bomb" today. It possessed the appearance and mechanism of a regular infernal machine and contained no explosives.

BIG WAR LOAN STRIKES A SNAG: QUESTION INCLUDING MUNITIONS OF WAR IN EXPORTS HALTS DEAL

This Major Question American Bankers Insist Must Be Settled First

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—There are 30,000 banks and banking institutions in the United States and all are to be let in on the proposed billion dollar loan to Great Britain and France. There will be no underwriters, but the big loan it made will be placed through a syndicate which would subscribe to the loan, this syndicate to be open to all concerns on equal terms. By Monday it is declared by financiers the commission which is here to negotiate the loan, must show their hand or to be slangy, "must fish or cut bait."

War Munitions Stumbling Block

The stumbling block in arranging the details appears to be the question of including munitions of war among exports to be paid for by the proceeds of the loan. On several details of the loan the commission and the bankers have agreed, but on this major question, it was said, their views are diametrically opposed. Further, it develops, there is an apparent split on the question in the ranks of the American financiers. The commissioners' attitude, so far as it can be interpreted from a canvass of such bankers conferring with it as would talk, is that the big credit, whether a billion dollars or less, should provide funds for all exports and that munitions of war certainly should be included. Some American bankers think so, too, but a great many are said to be of the opinion that the loan should cover only commodity exports and that another method must be found to pay for munitions of war, even if this method involves the shipment of huge stocks of gold across the Atlantic to the United States. The situation has not reached the acute stages of a deadlock, nor anything approaching it, but the line of demarcation is clear and defined.

Role Russia Is to Play

A minor point of variance between the commission and some American bankers is the role that Russia is to play in the participation of the loan. The commission, although acting officially only for Great Britain and France, is popularly to contemplate including Russia in its plans, too. But some American bankers want to deal directly with Russia and object, it is reported, to having her obtain money in this country through England and France.

A third point of disagreement, subordinate to either of the others, concerns the rate of interest.

All on Ground Floor

If the commission's call for help correctly reflected its views in their talks with newspaper men, Great Britain and France are emphatic in their assertion that the proposed bonds shall not pay more than 5 per cent interest and there will be no underwriting of the issue. This would eliminate the possibility that any group of bankers would be paid fat fees to place the loan on the market here. The return to the banker and the investor, it is reported, is to be the same. As to this proposal, it is understood the American bankers generally have been won over. In some quarters a return on one-half of one per cent to the bankers as stated in these dispatches yesterday, is regarded as more than due.

Quiet Reigns On THE MEXICAN BORDER

BROWNSVILLE, Sept. 18.—The border is quieter this morning. Residents of San Jose, an exclusive, wealthy Mexican town, have petitioned Americans to send troops to protect them against bandits, and Colonel Bullard sent a troop of cavalry.

Officials on both sides of the border are investigating yesterday's battle. It is rumored that General Nafarette, the Matamoros commander, is deploying troops along the river.

ONE MIGHTY BLOW IN THE BALKANS MAY END THE WAR BEFORE SPRING

BERLIN, Sept. 18.—One mighty blow in the Balkans may end the war before spring. By blasting a road through Serbia to Bulgaria the Teutons may settle the vexatious Balkans question and likewise bring an early peace. Both here and in Vienna the idea of a sudden stroke in the Balkans meets with hearty approval. Vienna particularly approves the reports that the Teutons are soon to invade Serbia. Vienna also believes that another move promises quickly to end the great world struggle. Militarists agree that the defeat of Serbia is comparatively easy, as a short march through northeastern Serbia would link the central empires. Bulgaria is already friendly and if Bulgaria fights it is certain to be with the Teutons. Her entrance into the combat will complete the chain of armies stretching from the Baltic to the Bosphorus and make the Teutons practically invincible. This week is crowded with Balkan visitors, especially Rumanian and Bulgarian diplomats.

German Attempt to Capture Vilna Launched, Czar May Order Evacuation

PETROGRAD, Sept. 18.—The German attempt to capture Vilna has been launched by an attack on the eastern side. Several German detachments have reached the railway, endeavoring to drive a wedge into the Russian lines. It is regarded as probable that the Czar will order the evacuation of Vilna shortly should the Germans threaten to envelop the defenders. Southeast of Vilna the Russians have been victorious. They have captured three villages and 3500 prisoners. At some points the Teutons' flight was almost a rout.

GERMANS RAIN SHRAPNEL ON FRENCH

PARIS, Sept. 18.—An official communique describes the western fighting as "frequent storms of artillery firing." The German guns rained shrapnel and under cover of this advanced on the French trenches, the cannonading shaking the entire Argonne forest.

SPIES FIRED SHIP SANT ANNA IN MID-OCEAN

Thirty Unexploded Bombs Found On Vessel When Flames Extinguished

LONDON, Sept. 18.—According to Lloyds' agent at Saint Michael, Azores, Captain Pavay of the Fabre liner Sant Anna, believes that Teuton spies fired the steamer in mid-ocean. The captain is convinced that spies placed bombs aboard the ship because she carried 1700 Italian reservists en route to Naples. Had the vessel carried munitions the flames, he is certain, would have caused a terrible explosion. Thirty unexploded bombs were found after the flames were extinguished following a nine-hour fight with the fire. The report praised the crew and passengers and said there was no panic. Nine liners answered the Sant Anna's wireless call for help.

RECEIVES A TRAGIC BEQUEST IN A WILL

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18.—Little Ollie MacBeth, whose father died in the battle between police and Bank Bandits, George Nelson last Sunday, received a tragic bequest in her father's will. She gets the death house where her father was slain by stray bullets. This house is blood stained, the windows shattered and the walls bullet scarred. The child plans to sue the city for the damage the police did.

OF FIRESChamber of Commerce Deals
With Several Matters of Importance

The meeting of the Tustin Chamber of Commerce last Wednesday night was strictly a business meeting, not having any entertainment features, but a number of matters of interest to the people were brought up.

C. E. Holt gave a report from the committee on fire protection. He described two kinds of outfits for fire protection, the cost of one being $500, and of the other $1000. The first could be attached to any automobile, the second would be built on a Ford machine, both outfits being entirely chemical. There were several questions bearing on this subject which were discussed. Plans of raising the money with which to purchase the outfit, a place to keep it and some one to take charge of it were the problems to be solved.

It was finally recommended that the $500 outfit be purchased and an effort be made to raise the money by house-to-house canvass, the committee to be retained and enlarged if necessary.

On Street Signs
H. W. Smith gave a report for the committee on street signs, giving the cost of wooden, metal and concrete posts. It was finally decided to use the money in the treasury as far as it would go to supply new metal posts where the signs were missing, the wooden posts to be replaced by metal ones as they wear out.

The report was made that arrangements have about been completed to have electric light bills paid at the Tustin bank.

Want More Lights
In regard to more street lights in Tustin Jasper Leck reported that there was a surplus in the county fund for street lights in Tustin of $265 and that they could vote to cut down the levy or have more lights. It was decided to have more lights, several being needed around the school grounds. W. L. Leiby, F. T. Preble and F. G. Courrier were appointed a committee to find the number of lights needed. It was moved and carried that E. M. Nealley and C. E. Utt be appointed a committee to get up an entertainment for the benefit of the Chamber of Commerce.

HAD TO BE TOWED IN

When Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Nealley were returning from a pleasant trip to San Juan Capistrano last Sunday in their new Ford machine, and came to the top of a long grade, Mr. Nealley removed the switch key just enough to release the current in order to coast down the grade. The key was hanging loosely in place and a slight movement of his foot knocked it out and it fell through a small opening below. They stopped and looked for the key, but a long, long search was fruitless. It was nowhere to be found and it began to be a serious question as to how they would get home. However, fortune finally favored them. Their friend, N. A. Beals came along in a big machine and towed them safely home. Rather an undignified return for their new machine, but they were only lacking a key. Mr. Nealley says he is now supplied with two keys.

eration of the Chamber of Commerce in having a lecture course of entertainments in Tustin which is to be undertaken by the Christian Endeavor Society. The committee on restricting the voting precincts of Tustin reported the Tustin district now divided into three voting precincts. From the Santa Ana city limits on the west the territory bounded by Tustin Main street on the south, Holt avenue on the east and Seventeenth street on the north is precinct No. 1. South of Main, Tustin, bounded by Newport road, Laguna and Red Hill, No. 2. East of Holt, north of Laguna, No. 3.

Lemon Men's Club
One of the notable events of the week in Tustin was the field meet of the Lemon Men's Club held last Saturday at the large packing house of the Lemon Association.

Three hundred persons sat down to luncheon together, an account of which has already been reported in the Register. But the Tustin items would not be complete without a mention of the fact that the after-dinner talks were very educational and, judging from the close attention given by the audience, many valuable hints were taken from the men who are devoting valuable time and the highest intelligence to experiments for the betterment of the citrus fruit industry.

At 6 o'clock the family and guests, Mr. and Mrs. Fenlon Matthews, and Clarence Tucker and George Smith of Santa Ana were seated at the prettily appointed table centered with carnations, at which a three-course dinner was served.

PARENT-TEACHER
MEETING HELD YESTERDAY

A meeting of the Tustin Parent-Teacher Association was held Friday afternoon in the school auditorium.

The date of the first fall meeting would have been October 8, but owing to the fact that the Tustin association is to entertain the Mothers' Congress on October 9, a meeting was called earlier.

The president, Mrs. S. W. Stanley in the chair, the meeting opened with a beautiful piano piece by Miss Ray Knight.

C. A. Marcy, the school principal, then told of "some of the things that happened during the summer."

Three of the teachers attended the summer school at Berkeley. T. H. Overton has been on the ground all the summer and Mr. Marcy has been there for the past six weeks. The new floors have been oiled, the window glass has been cleaned of paint spots, the weeds have been kept down on the athletic ground; a new fence has been built and a new barn. Finishing touches have been given the manual training room and domestic science room. Racks have been built for lumber and tool racks for use in manual training, which will be taught pupils in the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades. An effort will be made to have the boys make articles which can be put to use. There will be domestic science classes for the girls.

The audience was then favored with another pretty piano piece by Miss Mildred Marchant.

Minutes of the May meeting were read by the secretary, Miss Edith Adams.

The president announced that county examinations would be done away with. There will be no county examinations after this except at the finish of the eighth grade. The mothers have taken the responsibility of doing away with these examinations and the teachers will have the opportunity of showing the results.

The president then announced that the annual membership dues can be paid now.

They are twenty-five cents, ten cents to be used by the local association, five cents going to the district, five cents to the state and five cents to the National Mothers' Congress.

Plans were formulated for the entertainment of the Mothers' Congress at an all-day meeting on October 9. The local association will provide tea and coffee, fruit and salad and the tables will be spread out of doors if the weather is fine. Those who attend are expected to bring a lunch.

The secretary was instructed to send a note of sympathy to Miss Minnie Johnson, who has been ill in Los Angeles.

Motion adopted to continue the same plan of appointing a program committee as that of last year.

The regular meeting October 8 will be postponed until after the meeting of the Mothers' Congress.

Slips were passed for questions and there were two questions, as follows: The first: "Who will provide the tools for manual training?" Answer, the district provides tools.

The second question was: Can any one use the tennis court? Answer: It is for the use of the whole district. It can be used in or out of school hours provided the players are not too noisy.

NEIGHBORHOOD MEETING
A delightful little neighborhood meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Will Bowman on Irvine boulevard on Wednesday afternoon.

The ladies were invited to come and have a real good social afternoon over the fancy work and sewing. Subjects of interest to the neighborhood were discussed and an opportunity was afforded to tell about the summer vacations and trips.

Refreshments consisting of grape punch, home-made cakes, and marshmallows were served.

The afternoon was spent very enjoyably by Mrs. Hollis Lindsey, Mrs. Roy Runnels, Mrs. A. D. Turner, Miss Lillian Turner, Mrs. W. D. Bowman, Miss Ollie Bowman, Mrs. Ed Holmes, Mrs. Lawrence, Mrs. Fred Foster, Mrs. Claude Martin, Mrs. M. A. Martin, Mrs. Martha Rogers of Orange, Mrs. Addison Brown, Mrs. Charles Bowman and Misses Lillian Martin and Mildred Holmes.

EASTERN ENTERTAINED
Miss Minnie Keher of Butler, Ind., was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Utt from last Saturday until Wednesday. The time was spent in automobile to see all the sights of Orange county cities as well as the beaches, parks, oil fields, orchards bean fields, mountains and valleys, all so interesting to an eastern visitor.

VISITING HER BIRTHPLACE
Mrs. Sarah A. Moores, who left Tustin in August to visit relatives in Seattle, has decided to extend her trip as far east as her birthplace in Canada. She is accompanied by her sister. They have gone over the Canadian Pacific to Matapedia, Province of Quebec, Canada, and the trip will no doubt be a delightful one.

FOR THE TABLE
Instead of the usual potato salad served with cold meats, why not, for a change, try jellied vegetables?

If desired these can all be dressed with a light mayonnaise or a French dressing, though they are all flavored sufficiently, or should be, to be very tasty without the extra dressing.

The vegetables may be molded in fancy shapes, in little French pastry cases, in pepper shells, lemon shells, or vegetable cups made by hollowing out boiled beets, carrots, turnips or parsnips.

The foundation for these jellies is not just plain gelatine but is a chicken jelly, a calf's foot jelly, a mutton broth jelly, beef jelly or cereal jelly, each making, when properly combined, a tasty background for the vegetable flavors.

For instance, jellied peas and cauliflower. Melt the beef jelly, add to it a half cup of freshly cooked green peas that have been drained and a few sprays of freshly boiled cauliflower, season with pepper and salt, a dash of sugar and turn into wetted molds and jell.

Any other vegetables may be used either in combination or separately with the foundation jellies. Grapefruit pulp may be added to the tapioca jelly with a dash of sugar, pepper and salt. When turned out it may be used with French dressing. In fact, French dressing or mayonnaise may be used with any of the jellied vegetables or just lemon juice and salt. Sour cream will also be very agreeable with the tapioca combination.

It may be necessary to add a little gelatine to these jellies in hot weather, when it is difficult to chill anything sufficiently to have it hold its shape after it is removed from the ice without the air of a little stiffening. If the gelatine is added, however, do not forget to strain it before putting the jelly away to jell.

In place of the regular gelatine, agaragar will be found not only just as good but in many cases better. In powdered form it is handled just the same as is gelatine, only it should never be dissolved in hot water as is often done with the regular gelatine.—Christian Science Monitor.

CALLED SUDDENLY,
MISS WILLIAMS DEAD

Miss Clara Williams, well known by almost everyone in Tustin, just after 6 o'clock on Thursday evening complained of a slight indisposition and was advised to go to her room and lie down. She was visited by Mrs. Moore, with whom she was boarding and by Mrs. Charles Willard, and simple remedies used, but in a short time she was found to be growing worse and Dr. Waffle was called. By the time the doctor arrived Miss Williams was unconscious and was at once taken to the Santa Ana Hospital, where she died at about 12:30.

Miss Williams had no relatives here, but had many kind friends who looked after her welfare and gave her every attention when sick.

About a year ago she had a protracted illness, but lately has been active and well and attended a meeting of the missionary society on Thursday afternoon.

TUSTIN TEACHER IS ILL IN LOS ANGELES

Miss Minnie Johnson, one of the Tustin teachers, was detained in Los Angeles on account of illness. She has had a successful operation for appendicitis performed and is now convalescent. Mrs. Gus Egger will fill her position as teacher until Miss Johnson is able to teach.

HILLSIDE CLUB

A meeting of the Hillside Club was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George W. Brown on Lemon Heights.

Mrs. Brown's is one of the pretty homes in this locality of fine views said to be as beautiful as any in Southern California.

Asters were used in adornment, all pink in one room and blue in the other.

Since the beginning of the Hillside Club meetings, there has been a marked improvement in the sociability of the Lemon Heights neighborhood, which really seems to bring the homes closer together.

Dainty refreshments of cake and lemonade were served and with fancy work and lively conversation, the afternoon was delightfully spent by Mrs. J. A. Prescott, Mrs. Ed Waffle, Mrs. J. H. Martin, Mrs. James Willis Rice, Mrs. Gene Debaeke, Mrs. Will McFadden, Mrs. Frank Holmes, Mrs. Robbins and the hostess, Mrs. G. W. Brown.

ATTEND VETERAN ASSOCIATION

Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Long and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Smith were among the Tustin people who attended the Veterans' Association of Orange county meeting at Garden Grove last Tuesday. The proceedings of the meeting were much enjoyed as well as the banquet at the noon hour. The meeting will be held next year at Santa Ana.

W. C. T. U.

The regular meeting of the Tustin W. C. T. U. will be held next Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. Ladieu.

SPLENDID MEETING OF
MISSION SOCIETY
HELD THURSDAY

The monthly meeting of the Tustin Presbyterian Missionary Society was held at the home of Mrs. James Rice Thursday afternoon.

There were many features which lent a peculiar charm to the meeting. One was the unusually large attendance of young girls, and another was the beauty of the meeting place on this perfect afternoon. The Rice home was planned and built somewhat in "ye olden days," more elaborately designed and in striking contrast to the modern California bungalow. Its broad entranceway just off First street, bordered with the tropical nappas grass, and century plants and the spacious house at the end of this approach with its broad, high ceilinged reception hall, through the openings in which the vistas of wide rooms and bay window nooks are all typical of the older Southern ideas. The surrounding up-to-date citrus orchards suggests the bringing together of the old and new in perfect harmony.

There were about thirty-five ladies in attendance and the meeting, called to order by the president, Mrs. W. L. Leiby, opened with singing, followed by the roll call and reports of the secretary and treasurer.

After unfinished business was disposed of Mrs. W. S. McDougal gave an interesting report of the September Los Angeles Presbyterian meeting. An organ piece by Mrs. Samuel W. Nau gave a restful note to the proceedings which was much appreciated by the audience of ladies.

Mrs. W. L. Leiby and Mrs. John Dryer had been appointed to take charge of the meeting and were leaders in the topic "Alaska."

Mrs. Dryer opened the devotional exercises by reading the scripture lesson, Mrs. McDougal following in prayer.

The phases of missionary conditions in Alaska were brought out by different articles read by Mrs. Leiby, Mrs. McCullough, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Preble, and these were followed by a reading, "The Awakening of Alaska," by Miss Dorothy Utt. Articles on Alaska were continued by Mrs. Cranston, Mrs. Lindsey and Miss Childs, who called attention to the fact that one of the Tustin members and her husband are now on their way to Point Barrow to carry the gospel there, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Spence. A report of the recent district Presbyterian meeting at Anaheim was given by Mrs. T. R. Overton.

A very pretty number on the program was a song by seven girls, entitled, "If You Will Just Send Me," written by E. C. Wilson of the gospel team, First Methodist church, of Long Beach. The song was sung by Miss Jessie Rawlins, being joined in the chorus by Misses Myrtle Bowman, Lillian Martin, Grace Hatfield, Dorothy Utt and Avis Smith, accompanied by Miss Gertrude Utt. "Ashamed of Jesus" was sung by Mrs. James S. Rice with organ accompaniment by Mrs. Nau.

A delightful social time followed adjournment in which there was a mingling together and an opportunity was afforded to observe more closely the interesting pictures which adorn the Rice home.

Delicious ice cream and cake were served by the hostess, assisted by the young girls. The songs for the occasion and the musical program was arranged by the chairman of the music committee, Miss Clara Williams, who was present and seemed as well and full of life as any one. But a tragic note was sounded in the hearts of the women on Friday morning when the news came that she had been taken ill and passed away during the night, to the deep regret of her many friends in Tustin.

FINE MUSICAL PROGRAM

Mrs. James S. Rice is arranging a musical program to be given at her home some time during the month of October, at which time a silver offering will be taken, the proceeds will be used for finishing touches to the new Presbyterian manse. Further particulars will be announced later.

BETTER THAN COFFEE
—OR TEA

Why Drink Something Injurious When Better Things Are Available?

There is no question but what many people are injured unknowingly by the drinking of coffee and tea. Many also who realize the injurious effects continue using these beverages because they have not found a satisfactory substitute.

To all such is recommended a trial of that wonderful food product known as malted milk and the strengthening extracts of wheat and barley malt. This has proved for thousands a more energizing and beneficial drink, costing less, but far more tasty than either tea or coffee.

Try this for yourself, but do not expect satisfactory results if an inferior quality of malted milk is used. The San Francisco Exposition has just awarded "The Grand Prize" (highest possible award) to "Borden's Malted Milk in The Square Package"—made by the manufacturers of Borden's Eagle Brand Condensed Milk, whose name is a household word the world over.

Borden's has an indescribable nutty, snappy flavor all its own, and costs no more than ordinary kinds. Insist upon Borden's and look for the Square Package. At all modern druggists.—Advertisement.

"Hog-raising is a quick money maker in Pahvant Valley"

—FRED ROCK

Western Securities Co.

711 Hollingsworth Bldg., Los Angeles, Calif.

Gentlemen:

I am making money here in Pahvant Valley raising hogs. There is no better and easier hog country in the West. I started two years ago to raise hogs on my 40 acres on a commercial scale. I began with ten registered sows. I have sold to date about $4000 worth of stock and I have about $2000 worth left. I am proud of this record. It certainly speaks well for the country. I have raised all my feed with the exception of about $250 worth of grain which I found necessary to buy each year. My hogs are all Duroc-Jerseys. Hog raising is a quick, sure money-maker here and a man can soon become independent if he watches things carefully. This is an excellent alfalfa, sugar beet and grain country. The water system is good and the water cost is very low.

Fred Rock never had a day's farming experience before he came to Pahvant Valley four years ago. He is rapidly becoming independent just raising hogs. He will be wealthy in five years at his present rate of progress. Why is Mr. Rock getting ahead rapidly? The answer is—cheap, rich land, low-priced gravity water, abundant forage, perfect climate for hogs, no hog cholera or other drawbacks, live markets and good transportation facilities—everything the most exacting hog-raiser could desire. Pack your grip and go and talk with this man. Get facts and figures from him and a score of other former California ranchers who are forging ahead in this valley of opportunity.

Not only hogs—but alfalfa, sugar beets, alfalfa seed, grain, dairying, etc., are making Pahvant Valley farmers independent. This low-priced land and water gives you a real chance to make good—you are not handicapped or held back in any way. Why lose time and money under unfavorable conditions? Life is too short to struggle with high cost of land and water, poor soil, etc. Go to Pahvant Valley and see crops that will open your eyes! Our booklet will provide interesting reading—send for it. PIGSKIN LEAGUES DECIDED UPON YESTERDAY

Conference at Los Angeles
Reaches Decision As to Team Distribution

After five hours of deliberation yesterday afternoon the members of the Southern California American football conference, which met in the office of Seward Simonds at Los Angeles, were finally able to reach a point where all agreed as to the distribution of the various leagues.

Competition will certainly be close in the first division of the major league. In this group is included all of the Los Angeles schools, Pasadena, Long Beach and Santa Ana. In all there are seven teams and which will probably call for the meeting of the teams two or three times during the season.

The other division of the major league is known as the Citrus Belt division. In this are included Pomona, Chaffey Union, Redlands, Riverside, Corona, San Bernardino and Colton.

The minor league is also divided into two branches. The first will be known as the Suburban and the second as the Bay section league. The first consists of the following teams: South Pasadena, Alhambra, Lincoln, Harvard Military Academy, Whittier and Santa Monica. The Bay section will be made up of the Inglewood, Venice, Compton, San Pedro, Redondo and Gardena. The fifth division will be known as the Valley league. This is a new organization altogether. It will contain Monrovia, Orange, Fullerton, Citrus Union, Burbank and San Fernando high schools.

As a request of the conference members concerning the position of San Diego, let it be understood that because the southern high school does not appear in any of the schedules that no break in athletic relations has occurred, but because of the distance and the extra financial support that would be needed to compete with the border town players in such a league, the change was made.

STOLEN CAR CHASED SOUTH TO SERRA

Notification that an automobile bearing state license No. 3433 had been stolen from Los Angeles was received by officers here at 1:20 o'clock this morning. Forty minutes later Officers Smithwick and Ryan saw a machine they believed to be the stolen one speeding through the city toward the south. The machine passed so quickly that the officers were unable to distinguish the number. Sheriff Jackson was notified. The sheriff dispatched a motorcycle officer after the fleeing automobile. The motorcycle officer learned at Serra that the machine had passed through that point about an hour before. The police at San Diego were notified to keep a lookout for the car.

RETURNING HOME, HE FINDS COOL STRANGER COOKING HIS DINNER

After an hour's absence from the San Joaquin Gun Club house, Andrew Laird, the keeper, returned, and found a stranger calmly preparing a meal. The uninvited guest had spread out jam and jelly, had taken out some cold meat, cut some bread and had the tea-kettle almost to a boil. Things looked nice and homey, and the meal was almost ready to serve. "What are you doing here?" demanded Laird heatedly. The guest did not like Laird's manner. He mumbled something about somebody having sent him. As he was mumbling, the man made for the door.

"Who sent you?" demanded Laird, but the stranger did not pause to reply. Aside from the fact that the man's acts were unusual, Laird thinks the man looked queer. The club house is at the head of the bay well away from any main travelled road. At the time Mrs. Laird was away in Los Angeles. Nothing in the house was stolen.

Flood Control Congress Urges
People of United States to Act Now

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18.—The Internal Drainage and Flood Control Congress met here last night, in conjunction with, and under the auspices of, the fifth annual meeting of the National Drainage Congress. Col. E. J. Watson, president of the National Drainage Congress, of Columbia, S. C., made the opening and only address of the first session. He said:

"The turmoil of war has awakened the whole nation to its condition of unpreparedness and, perhaps rudely, the world war conditions are awakening the people to economic unpreparedness as well. Upon us rests the responsibility of arousing the people of the United States to the immediate necessity for flood prevention and drainage of our swamp lands that a $100,000,000 annual flood loss be saved that 20,000 deaths from malaria be prevented, and the 80,000,000 acres of swamp lands, 6,500,000 of which are in the West, be converted into producing farms; 1,850,000 acres of these western swamp lands are in the Lower San Joaquin and Sacramento valleys of California; $1,500,000,000 yearly would accrue in agricultural productions within the borders of the United States if these lands could be converted into producing farms. "There is a yearly death and property loss far in excess of any we ever will suffer from a foreign foe. We would add by drainage reclamation alone a productive domain greater than the States of Illinois and Indiana combined. This area would give homes to 1,925,000 families."

Mr. Watson read to the delegates a letter from President Wilson, in which the President said: "I think you know my sympathy with all well-considered problems of public improvement and I need not tell you that I am sincerely interested in the objects discussed by the National Drainage Congress."

SELLS $200,000 WARPLANES TO THE DUTCH

Glenn Martin Completes Deal
With Netherlands For the Sale of Aircraft

Two hundred thousand dollars worth of great war hydro-aeroplanes have been ordered by The Netherlands government from Glenn L. Martin, Santa Ana aviator and builder of aircraft in Los Angeles, according to dispatches from Washington.

Announcement of the contract for aeroplanes was made in Washington by the United States Treasury Department.

Martin, who has been in Washington several weeks on a proposal for making more aeroplanes for Uncle Sam, arrived in New York yesterday to have a final conference with Special Representative Kruller of the Holland government, relative to that country's purchase.

The Netherlands has ordered Martin to build twenty hydro-aeroplanes, all to be delivered for shipment to Dutch East India by February or March, 1916. These machines are to cost $10,000 each.

Each machine will be equipped with a 125-horsepower Hall-Scott six-cylinder motor. The machines are known as "Model T-A." For weeks, Lieutenant Van ter Poorten and Captain Vischer, representing the aero corps of the Holland government, experimented with the Martin hydro-aeroplanes at Nigger Slough with Martin. Two machines were used in the experiments. In one of them the Holland officers broke the American passenger-carrying record, 6400 feet, by ascending 7400 feet.

COURT AWARD REFUSED BY SCULLY; PAVING STILL HELD UP

Riverside Press: That the county highway commission made a tender of the full amount of the court award to the condemned right-of-way through the Scully ranch, south of Corona, and that the tender was refused by Mr. Scully, is a statement made by President W. B. Clancy of the commission in correction of a report that the commission had refused to pay the award. "I made the tender of payment in full to Mr. Scully myself," says Mr. Clancy. "The court award was $3001, the court costs $93.10 and the interest was made, $9.02, making a total of $3103.12. We visited Mr. Scully at his ranch house for the purpose, and he declined to accept the award."

It is the Scully right-of-way which is holding up the completion of the county highway system through the Santa Ana canyon to the Orange county line. The stretch from Corona to the Scully ranch has been contracted for and is now being improved. The road runs through the Scully ranch for a mile and a half, and it is on this portion that the "big hill" is located.

The county owns a 40-foot right-of-way through the ranch on the line of the present road, and whether or not it will be sufficient to permit of the "big hill" being reduced to a satisfactory grade in case no other course is available, is still a question.

With the Orange county end of the canyon road closed for the winter to permit the laying of concrete, it has been generally hoped that the Riverside county end could be undertaken at once, but from the present tangle over the Scully route it looks pretty dubious.

REMODEL EXTERIOR OF FOURTH ST. BLOCK

Alterations which will greatly improve the appearance of the fronts of the buildings located at 106 and 108 West Fourth street have been started by Contractor C. M. Jordan for the Farmers & Merchants' National Bank and W. A. Huff, owners of the property.

The downstairs exteriors of 106 and 108 West Fourth, occupied by Matter's drug store and the Santa Ana Hardware Company, were improved with modern fronts during the past few years. The desire of the owners of the property is to have the appearance of the upstairs exteriors as modern as the power portion of the building and because of this the improvements are being made.

The plans call for the putting in of large square windows to take the place of the high, narrow ones now in place. The upstairs exteriors will be remodeled. The old stairway will be torn out and a new, attractive set put in its place.

"Owners of property in the downtown section of Fourth street have wonderfully improved their holdings during recent years by putting in modern store fronts," said W. A. Huff today. "However, but little attention has been given to remodeling the upstairs exteriors. The result is that the tourist coming into the city is struck by the attractive appearance of the downstairs exteriors and by the contrast of the old-style upstairs exteriors. This makes a condition that may be compared with a beautiful picture having no frame. It is because we desire the upper portion of our buildings to be as attractive as the lower that we are making the present improvement."

FINEST SUGAR BEET LAND in the STATE!

an acre and up.

San Fernando Mission Lands
Under $30,000,000.00 Aqueduct
Water Supply

Practical farmers are buying San Fernando Mission Lands—under the greatest irrigation system in Southern California—the $30,000,000 Los Angeles aqueduct. Records prove that this is the finest sugar beet land in the state—deep, rich soil, surrounding the old San Fernando Mission—the famous "chosen lands" of the old Mission Fathers who selected the best soil and climatic conditions obtainable.

Go and see what the beet growers are doing in San Fernando Valley. Thirty tons to the acre is not an unusual record here. Farmers are netting from $115 to $130 per acre. San Fernando Mission Lands have great speculative value. They are closely suburban to Los Angeles, on an electric car line, surrounded and in the midst of a high class development, with magnificent electric-lighted boulevards, beautiful high and grammar schools, in the attractive, modern cities of San Fernando, Van Nuys, Lankershim and Universal City. All other lands closely suburban to Los Angeles with equal advantages, are held at $1500 to $2000 an acre. Experts predict that San Fernando Mission Lands will be another Hollywood in six years' time. Never again will there be an opportunity to purchase land of this type with unlimited, cheap water supply, for as little as $300 an acre. Don't confuse these lands with isolated "farm land." This is high class suburban property in a cultured, developed community. These lands are noted for their wonderful crop of lemons, oranges, avocados, walnuts, sugar beets, deciduous fruits, winter vegetables—and for hogs, dairying and poultry.

SCHOOL DAYS AGAIN

The first day of school is one of the prettiest pictures of the yearly calendar. The long procession of children, all washed and combed and dolled up for the opening session, is a pageant of youth and hope. The youngsters as a whole cannot be kept for more than one day at this high water mark of cleanliness.

They may growl and fret at having to resume their toil. But not one in ten would remain at home if given the chance. As a matter of fact, the time hangs rather heavy on their hands before the long vacation is over.

It takes an inventive child-mind to find a sufficient number and varieties of play to fill a whole vacation. By September about all of the known pastimes have been thoroughly tried out, and all possible joy extracted. Most children are willing to work at school tasks, if the proper incentives are applied. They may not see the inherent value of what they are doing. But they are responsive to the motive of competition. The position at the head of the class will never lose its allurements.

WILL SAVE MONEY

Fresno Republican: The howl is still being raised, for campaign purposes only, that the special election this fall will cost a vast lot of money, variously estimated, according to the degree of imagination of the protestors as anywhere from half a million dollars up. Of course the direct expense will not be anything like so great as these shriekers of calamity allege, and even if it were it would not be a fatal objection, since the right of the majority of the people to have a law in which they believe go into effect in time to be of use would be worth in any event the cost of an election. But as a matter of fact, the indirect saving of this election in making the next election cheaper will equalize a large part of the direct expenses of the election. The public printer has just sent out the pamphlets containing the propositions to be voted on, with the arguments for and against them. This pamphlet would have been necessary next year, if the special election were not held now, and therefore the expense is exactly the same, whether the election is held now or consolidated with next year's election. But if the referendum this year shall sustain the non-partisan laws, there will be a much greater saving in the necessary expense of next year's election. Under the old law, there would have to be six or more ballots printed for next year's primaries. Under the new law there will be only one ballot, and that a simpler one at the primary election next year. This will directly reduce the printing bill for the primary election and will indirectly reduce all the other costs by making the task of casting and counting the ballots much easier. The ballots at the final election will be far simpler and smaller, and will cost less than half as much as the present ballots, besides being counted with much greater expedition. We have not computed the exact figures, but it would not be a rash estimate to say that at least half the total cost and a great deal more than half the printing cost of this election will be saved at the next election as a result of the laws on which the people will vote at this election.

FINE PROGRAM AT THE LYRIC THEATER

The Lyric Theater is presenting on Sunday and Monday a program of pictures which is hard to beat as each and every subject is covered by a cast of stars. Beautiful and dainty Ella Hall is featured in a two-part drama entitled "The Little Blonde in Black," which is said to equal any five-reel picture ever produced. Another strong drama, with Adah Lane, entitled "The Burden Bearer," will also be presented. As for comedy of the higher class, "My Tomboy Girl," in two parts with Rosemary Theby and Harry Myers, is in a class by itself. It will entertain you for thirty minutes like you was never entertained before. Then there comes Lee Moran, Victoria Forde and Eddie Lyons in a comedy classic, entitled "Toney the Wop," which will make you laugh until your sides ache. Manager Knapp guarantees this program a sure cure for the blues.

For Tuesday and Wednesday a big program of pictures has been arranged, with Charlie Chaplin in one of his latest comedies as the headliner.

At the West End

"Rule G" is the film adaptation of Rufus Steele's story, "Keeping John Barleycorn Off the Train," which appeared in the Saturday Evening Post. When Mr. Steele was approached with the request to produce a film version of this story he consented only upon condition that the scenes should be taken in the actual railroad environment. The Blazon Film Producing Company, who made the picture, took the matter up with one of the leading railroad companies, and realizing the great benefits of this picture, that company agreed to co-operate and assist in every possible manner in the production of this film.

"Rule G," briefly, was a rule adopted by the American Railroad Association prohibiting the use of liquor by any of its employees upon penalty of dismissal. The screen version of "Rule G" brings out the experience of one railroad superintendent in endeavoring to make this rule operative among his men and in his shops.

The story opens with a scene of workmen actually at work among the machinery, showing their use of liquor and the death of one employee because of intoxication. The story goes on through various experiences of the railroad with insubordinate employees, including a riot, a train wreck, because of a drunken engineer, and various other thrilling scenes, and a pleasing love story woven throughout the entire web of the production.

In the end, through the efforts of an earnest employee, we see the saloon replaced by an attractive railroad men's club and that particular railroad awarded a medal because of the absence of accidents and the safety afforded its passengers in transportation.

The picture is one which will undoubtedly prove popular with all classes of people throughout the United States.

To be shown at the West End Theater one day only.

"Sold"

Removes Ban

For many months the entire motion picture industry has been concerned with the question of censorship as constituted by the acts of the legislatures and aldermanic bodies of several of the states and cities in the United States of America.

On Monday, August 9, 1915, the Hon. John M. Patterson, sitting in the Court of Common Pleas for Philadelphia county, Pennsylvania, decided, after a hearing lasting several hours, that the ban placed by the Pennsylvania Board of Censors on the motion picture photo play entitled "The Secret Orchard" must be removed. Patterson claimed that the cure of the evil does not lie in fighting the censorship laws. Literature and art of the very highest type are being given to the world by the motion picture, Patterson said.

The producer alone can make its proof, he needs the active co-operation of the distributor, the exchange man and the exhibitor. There is nothing to be gained by berating the censors if they make mistakes. The mistakes can be rectified as they were in the "Secret Orchard" case, by submitting the issues to a regularly organized court.

HIS REST WAS BROKEN

—O. D. Wright, Rosemont, Neb., writes: "For about six months I was bothered with shooting and continual pains in the region of my kidneys. My rest was broken nearly every night by frequent action of my kidneys. I was advised by my doctor to try Foley Kidney Pills and one 50 cent bottle made a well man of me. I can always recommend Foley Kidney Pills for I know they are good." This splendid remedy for backache, rheumatism, sore muscles and swollen joints contains no habit-forming drugs. THE interest here in "The Blindness of Virtue," the Essanay film adaptation which is to be shown at Clune's Theatre next Monday and Tuesday should be very great, if the beliefs of the ministers and educators throughout the country count for anything. The Essanay Company received numerous letters from prominent persons commending them for reproducing on the screen the great English sermon which stirred the country several years ago.

That the whole country will be the better for it after the six-reel film has traversed from coast to coast is the thought expressed in most of these letters. The film tells a story of two girls both of whom are reared to young maidenhood without having been told the secrets of their maturity. One strays blindly from the straight and narrow path. The other, a minister's daughter—thanks to the respect of her first sweetheart—is saved from the pitfalls of her ignorance and finally told by a neglectful mother of the important functions of her sex. Bryant Washington plays the sweetheart and Edna Mayo portrays the minister's daughter.

LEGAL WAR FOR POSSESSION OF 6-YEAR-OLD GIRL STARTED

A fight for the possession of little Blanche Rose George, aged 6, of Huntington Beach, has been started by the child's mother against the father.

The petition starting the battle reviews the story of the domestic relations and dissolution of the family of Arthur George. Intrigue is charged by the mother against her former husband and his present wife, who is the niece of the mother.

Mrs. Anna Roberts, the mother, has petitioned the superior court asking that she be appointed guardian of the little girl, who at present is with her father, Arthur George, at Huntington Beach.

According to the petition, in January, 1913, George was tried in Los Angeles on a charge of non-support of his minor child, and he was given a two-years' suspended sentence. During that two years the child was in charge of Mrs. Loretta Murrette, and to her father paid $15 a month in accordance with the court order.

Here the petition harks back to the marriage of George to the woman. Mrs. George had secured an interlocutory decree of divorce from a former husband, and thought she was entitled to marry again. She did not know a final decree had to be granted.

After George was up in court in Los Angeles his wife brought to his house her niece, Jessie Wells, and the petition declares that soon afterward George and the niece conspired to break the marriage bond between him and Mrs. George. In October, 1913, in Los Angeles, George got a decree annulling his marriage on the ground that the woman he married had never been finally divorced from her former husband.

A few days after that annulment decree was signed, George and Jessie Wells were married.

Mrs. Roberts, the mother, states that she is now a widow, Frank M. Roberts, her husband, having died.

While the child was in the possession of Mrs. Murrette, both father and mother visited her when they pleased. Mrs. Roberts says that she was with her daughter a great deal.

Doings In Social and Club Circles

"MAKE BELIEVE" PARTY Startling "Announcement" Is Made at Luncheon of First Economics Section

Yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. S. Gilbert on South Main street, the First Household Economics Section of the Elbel began its work for the coming season. When the year's program was made up last June, it was decided that the section give a series of luncheons. That these luncheons must cost no more than the modest sum of twenty-five cents a plate will give the club members an opportunity to demonstrate whether their theories as to household economics will prove of any practical worth. A variety of luncheons will be given—a Spanish luncheon, a Southern luncheon, a Dutch luncheon and a Japanese luncheon being among them. Yesterday's affair was in the nature of an announcement luncheon and was a shining example for the mothers of marriageable daughters. The committee in charge was composed of Mesdames E. S. Gilbert, C. S. Kendall and Miss Rosa Boyd.

Bowls of golden glow and of yellow marigolds glowed like bits of autumn sunshine against the brown walls of the library and the living room and white asters and ferns centered the tables in the dining room. The white and green of the center-piece occurred in several pretty ways throughout the particularly delectable four-course luncheon.

Of course an announcement luncheon could not be altogether in character without a fiancée, and this very interesting rule was played with rare charm and naturalness by Miss Boyd. In response to many pressing questions as to the fortunate man in the case, Miss Boyd, with becoming coyness and reluctance, modestly admitted that the poetic muse had smiled upon her for awhile the other day, inspiring her to write a little rhyme which would clearly indicate her own views in regard to a proper man. Amid the merriment following her clever rhyming, bon bon dishes were passed around holding green and white mints tied together with white satin ribbon. Between the mints were discovered bits of paper upon which appeared the names of the "happy couple." The "leading man," much to the amusement of the luncheon guests, was announced as a celebrity well known for his collection of beautiful wives, and after the very natural flutter of excitement and interest over the announcement had somewhat abated, the guests were carefully shut in a room, and after a brief interval during which the familiar sound of Lohengrin's wedding march floated in the air, were invited, one by one, into the living room, where, amid the peals of laughter from guests earlier arrived, they were introduced to a stunning "bridal pair." The handsome "bride" carried white roses and ferns and was almost completely surrounded by yards and yards of gracefully draped wedding veil—some envious soul said it was clearest cloth, but she wasn't properly romantic, and probably doesn't even believe in fairs.

The tall and handsome "groom" was arrayed in the "conventional black"—a full-dress suit of irreproachable cut and fit. The same unromantic person aforementioned said that the "groom" looked like Mrs. Gilbert and that the dress suit was probably her husband's—again a clear case of envy, for how many women can wear their husband's evening clothes and look like a proper fashion plate hero?

Everyone departed with the delightful feeling of satisfaction that follows a perfectly good time—all of which goes to prove that grown-up girls, just as well as little bits of girls, find royal pleasure in the game of "make-believe."

I wonder if the man they'll name is handsome, or just born to fame? Of one thing I'm very sure—I'll forbid the banns if he is poor!

I'd much prefer that he'd have riches—Than an extra crease in his fine breeches.

For a "dandy" is not at all to my liking—I'd rather have one who would go a-hiking.

Khaki pants and a big slouch hat—An outing shirt, and no cravat—Stylish boots and a sporty air, And one that would take me every-where.

We will cross the streams, and climb the grades, Avoiding all the grand parades—We will watch the sun rise on the hills.

And stop beside the shady rills To eat our lunches, so full of spice That only sun and air make nice.

Then we'd pack up, and off we'd go, Somewhere we'd never been before, A tire bursts—and we stop awhile But always wear the same sweet smile.

What matter if the tires got mixed And it seemed we'd never get them fixed? We didn't care—the world was wide, And we were sitting side by side.

But the ground grew hard, and very chilly—And we were growing very silly. For greasy hands and an empty larder Made things look blue and all the harder.

For although the road we chose to travel Might be romantic, it was full of gravel. I began to fear that, after all, Though the man was handsome and very tall, His judgment was poor, and I'd made a blunder.

For when he got mad he swore like thunder. I'm very glad it was all a dream, For however anxious one may seem, "A maiden all forlorn" is not happy. Unless she is wedded to the right chappie.

KEWPIE WEDDING SCENE FEATURED BY DRAGON

The show window of the Dragon is displaying a miniature wedding scene that is attracting marked attention, the demure little Kewpie bride and the groom being totally unaware of the admiration they are winning.

They are plighting their vows beneath a floral wedding bell that might well be duplicated for a "real" affair, the steps to their altar being carpeted in green velvet strewn with rose leaves.

Pillars, guarding the cunning pair, are crowned with flowers and at one side stands a beautiful three-layer bride's cake decorated with silver leaves, candied rose buds and other appropriate emblems fashioned from rich white frosting.

The bridey pair, who are just plain Kewpies, are so captivating in their array that they are gaining quite as much prominence as "Afraid of His Voice," the "Soldier Kewpie" or the celebrated cook of the Kewpie family, and they are giving many a pretty suggestion to prospective brides of the season.

PHILS CONFIDENT OF WINNING IN LEAGUE RACE

Mrs. Gavvy Cravath Returns From Philadelphia; Says Team Is Worried

That the Philadelphia Nationals are confident of winning the pennant but that they are showing the effects of the continued strain, is the assertion of Mrs. Gavvy Cravath, who arrived here last night from Philadelphia and remained here for a short time before continuing on to the Cravath's winter home at Laguna Beach.

Mrs. Cravath stated that her famous home-run slugging husband has aged considerably during the past few months.

"This is the first season that I have known him to worry about the condition of the team or its standing in the league," said Mrs. Cravath.

"Though the Phillies have all kinds of assurance of being able to win the National League pennant, there seems to be a feeling among the club members that an additional winning spurt at the present time would increase their chances wonderfully. None of them is worried about the possibility of being defeated by either the Boston or the Detroit Americans in the world series.

According to Mrs. Cravath, Manager Pat Moran of the Phillies is satisfied with Gavvy's work with the stick this season. Moran called on the Cravaths the night before Mrs. Cravath left for California. Mrs. Cravath voiced a wish that her husband was hitting the way he was two years ago. In reply Moran said that Gavvy's hitting at present is the kind that counts, the hits coming at opportune times.

Mrs. Cravath stated that the Phillies are all loud in their praise of the work of Fred Luderus. The team members say there is no doubt that the hitting of Luderus has been a big factor in putting the club where it is at present.

ENTHUSIASTIC OVER THIS COUNTY'S RICHES

Visitor Tells of His Visit Here Quoted In Riverside Enterprise

Riverside Enterprise: Levi Chubbuck of the government agricultural service and located in Riverside, has made a trip through Orange county accompanied by C. H. Van Wie. The latter is enthusiastic about the remarkable variety of resources shown in that great citrus and agricultural district. In speaking of the trip, he said:

"Leaving Riverside Tuesday morning and spending some time with the citrus associations at Corona we started down the Santa Ana canyon. Turning off the canyon road we drove through Yorba and Richfield to Placentia where the fruit associations were busy packing and shipping oranges. This was true of many of the associations through the county. Though free from frost the coast is so much cooler, the year around the oranges are some two or three months later than Riverside fruit. This accounts for the abundance of late Valencia in that section. We saw a considerable fruit still on the trees.

"The towns of Fullerton, Anaheim, Santa Ana and Orange, seemed busy and prosperous. The country around them is very rich and well occupied with various crops. Though small in area, Orange county is one of the richest agriculturally in the state. It produces successfully a varied line of products, for instance, $1,000,000 worth of beans, $2,000,000 of walnuts, $3,000,000 of sugar beets, and $5,000,000 worth of citrus fruits.

"At one time celery was a prominent crop, but is not as extensively raised at present. Near Fullerton we passed the beautiful Valencia groves of Mr. Chapman and his palatial residence with its California setting of rare and beautiful flowers."

TALKING OF CLASS D LEAGUE; SANTA ANA MAY BE IN IT

Should Tom Darmody, owner of the Los Angeles baseball club, and Frank Dillon, manager, form a class D league in Southern California this winter for the purpose of developing young ball players, there is a possibility that Santa Ana will be one of the towns on the circuit, according to a story appearing in the Los Angeles Herald yesterday evening.

Manager Dillon is quoted as saying that he would take over the management of one of the teams in the talked-of league. It is Dillon's belief that a class D circuit would bring thousands of dollars in returns in the way of star young ball players. It is stated in the Herald that Darmody and other Coast league owners believe they could break even in a Southern California class D league. Says the Herald:

"The circuit Darmody has in mind includes some of the towns in the defunct Southern California class D leagues, but it should prove a stronger circuit than the one organized a few years ago.

"Among the towns Darmody would consider would be Imperial, El Centro, San Diego, San Bernardino, Santa Ana and Vernon.

"The season would start in November and last until March, at which time the Coast league would take the center of the stage."

"Limit the towns in the circuit to twelve players during the season," said Dillon. "They also should have a low pay roll.

"Experienced players ought not to be allowed on the team, except perhaps one man, and I would favor him being a catcher."

"Four games a week would be enough for the league. The first game could be played on Thursday and then up to Sunday.

"By playing in the winter time the heat would be escaped, and I do not think there would be many games postponed because of rain. Diamonds that easily absorb moisture could be arranged."

CROWN STAGES WILL HAVE DEPOT ON MAIN

Announcement has been made by A. B. Watson, of Watson & Tice, proprietors of the Crown Stage Line, to the effect that the line of stages has made arrangements for a depot at 505 North Main street. The store room at that location is to be remodeled. A driveway will be cut through the front of the building and the passengers loaded and unloaded at the rear of the premises. The depot will be fitted up with numerous conveniences for patrons of the line and the new station will be ready for use by the time the new city ordinance ruling the jitneys off the streets goes into effect. Watson announces that two six-cylinder, seven-passenger automobiles will be added to the Crown line in the near future.

WERDIN IS SUED PARTNERSHIP IS ASKED

Paver Is Angry That Man Who Says He Is Partner Should Assert Claims

E. R. Werdin, street paver, who laid a lot of streets at Corona and Anaheim under the name of the L. A. Paving Company, has another law suit on his hands.

Law suits seem to be one of Werdin's favorite pastimes. He caused the arrest of Mrs. W. H. Clayton of Orange on a charge of insanity, the arrest following the chiseling of a hole in some pavement laid by Werdin. Mrs. Clayton asserted the paving was not up to contract.

The insanity charge did not stick. Mrs. Clayton sued Werdin for false arrest. That case was tried in the superior court here. Werdin won.

Werdin is defendant in a suit brought by an Anaheim man for damage done trees by pavers. This week Judge Thomas took evidence in a suit for $10,350 brought against Werdin and the L. A. Paving Company by Hunsinger of Orange, who says his horse got scared at Werdin's concrete mixer and threw Hunsinger. The case is to be submitted on briefs.

Just now Werdin is engaged in a law suit in Los Angeles. Of it the Los Angeles Times says:

"Those two stalwarts, Charles Stansbury and Ernest R. Werdin, met in the legal arena yesterday and honors were about even when the clouds dispersed in the preliminary struggle. Mr. Stansbury entered the ring first with an application for a receiver for the L. A. Paving Company in which he claims a partnership interest and an order restraining Mr. Werdin from disposing of the property of the company.

"Judge Dehy denied the receivership, but granted a temporary injunction against Mr. Werdin and the corporation pending the trial of the suit. Scarborough and Adams & Brown are opposing the claims of Mr. Stansbury for Mr. Werdin.

"The suit involves the loan by Mr. Stansbury of 11,000 shares of stock of the Yosemite Laundry Company of Pasadena as collateral security for a loan of $7000. At that time, January 1, 1914, Mr. Stansbury alleges that Mr. Werdin was financially embarrassed and that in consideration of the loan it was agreed that both should be joint owners of Mr. Werdin's extensive paving plant.

"Subsequently the L. A. Paving Company was organized with Mr. Werdin as general manager. The profits over and above expenses and the payment of debts were to be divided between the so-called partners.

"Mr. Stansbury says he demanded on July 1, last, a full accounting of Mr. Werdin, and the return of the laundry stock. Whereupon, he alleges, Mr. Werdin became very angry and refused to make a statement. This precipitated the suit.

"Mr. Werdin says there was no partnership and denies that Mr. Stansbury assisted him financially. On the other hand, he says he advanced Mr. Stansbury money. Large contracts are involved by the differences between the two stalwarts."

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

Both wax and green beans have been advanced to 7 and 7½ cents a pound and garlic is 2 cents higher per pound. Slackening arrivals of northern Burbank potatoes forced the price up 5 cents a hundred.

GOES TO COURT IN ATTACKING SEAL BEACH ELECTION

Hellman Would Deal Proposed New City Body Blow Before Incorporation

Writ of Review Secured For September 30—Notes From the Courthouse

Hoping to head off the incorporation of Seal Beach, I. W. Hellman has gone into the superior court and has secured a writ of review of the proceedings leading up to the call of the election, which is set for October 19.

From the first, Hellman through Attorney E. W. Freeman has put up a stubborn fight against the proposal to incorporate the beach town. His objection is based upon the plan to include 650 acres of Hellman's extensive holdings in the city boundaries. Hellman does not care how much Seal Beach incorporates, if it would not take in land that will be called upon to pay city taxes at Seal Beach. But Seal Beach boosters say that Hellman with his nearby property will get much benefit from the civic improvements to be made, and they propose that he shall help pay for the improvements. That is why 650 acres of Hellman's land is in the proposed municipality.

The petition for the writ of review was filed by Attorneys E. W. Freeman and Paul Nourse of Los Angeles. It alleges that there are a number of defects in the petition filed with the Board of Supervisors, in the handling of the matter by the board and in the order granting the petition and calling the election.

Judge Thomas has signed the order for a complete transcript of the proceedings, and the matter will be fought out in the superior court on September 30. If Hellman can get the court to knock the proceedings out, the election of October 19 would be of no avail. On October 19 the people of Seal Beach are to vote upon incorporation and are to elect a set of city officers.

For Guardian
Eugene Gristel has petitioned for guardianship of Hans Weber, aged 15. The petition, filed by Attorney Wallace W. Davis, states that the boy's parents live in Switzerland, and that his uncle and aunt who live in Los Angeles have been unkind to the boy and he does not want to live with them. It is stated that the boy wants to attend school, and he wants Gristel made his guardian.

DEMOCRATIC MULE ON HUNT FOR JOB KICKS HOLE IN POSTOFFICE

Tustin Postmaster Uses Broom on Long-eared Invader, and Heels Fly

A Democratic mule was abroad in the land yesterday, seeking a political job. He bethought himself of the post offices. He may not have known that there is only one Republican postmaster left, Lew Edwards, at Fullerton, and he will soon get the ax in favor of a Democrat.

This Democratic mule of yesterday showed up at Tustin without halter or rope. He wandered inquiringly along the sidewalk seeking the post office. He struck his head half way into Jack Williamson's barber shop, but Williamson waved a razor and a pair of scissors in accents appealing, and the mule backed out.

He came to the post office, and with a smile of satisfaction upon his homely countenance the long-eared beast invaded the open front of the place.

Postmaster J. A. Phiney is a Democrat. What's more he has got a four-year commission on the Tustin postoffice, and nobody need bother around. Seeing the mule nosing around, Phiney seized a healthy broom and went out for to protect his domain.

"Get out of here; don't you know this post office job is taken?" Now, it is not pretended that those are the exact words Phiney used. Republicans over around Tustin are crediting Phiney with saying a lot of things he might not have said. But whatever Phiney said, he squared off and spanked the mule with the broom.

Indignant I should say yes, though he is used to being beaten. That mule drew his rear hoofs up just as Maud's pictures show they can be drawn up, and he let drive. May be he thought there was a chance of creating a vacancy in that post office.

Bang! The mule's heels knocked a hole in the wall of post office boxes, and scattered some of Uncle Sam's mail on the floor.

That made the postmaster good and mad, and the way he sailed into that mule would do credit to election day. The mule saw there was no use. He withdrew from the scene of action.

Fifty-five Santa Anans, including the twenty-five members of the Santa Ana Canton (drill team, left this afternoon on the Odd Fellows' special which was scheduled to leave Orange at 4:10 o'clock for the Grand Lodge Encampment at the San Francisco Exposition. The Encampment will close Friday evening. The special train is scheduled to leave on the return trip south at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The competitive drills will be held at the exposition grounds Thursday afternoon.

SICK MAN AT COUNTY HOSPITAL TAKES LEAVE

What has become of Goaguin Aguera? This is the question that is puzzling the Santa Ana police force and the County Hospital staff.

Aguera was brought to the hospital from the jail last Thursday, and his condition was thought to be serious being unconscious Thursday night. Yesterday he was much better and able to eat. Early this morning the discovery was made that the padlock of the small cell in which he had been placed, was broken, the prisoner having made his escape between 4 and 5:30 this morning by jumping to the ground, a distance of twelve feet.

The police authorities were at once notified, but nothing yet has been heard of Aguera.

COMMITTEE MEETING
A meeting was held at the Chamber of Commerce rooms at the city hall last night, there being present members of that organization and the M. & M. Association having in charge the securing of signatures of property owners on those sections of Fourth street and Main street on which it is proposed to install ornamental lights. Favorable progress was reported.

USE FORCE CLIP HAIR: ARRESTS THE RESULT

Hilarious After-Wedding Celebration Brings Complaints From Los Alamitos

The hilarious game of taking your friend down and clipping his hair is a new and joyous indoor sport indulged in by a number of residents of Los Alamitos. The game has some objectionable features. For instance, it has resulted in landing some in jail, and others are to follow.

The sport was started along in the early hours this morning. A number of young men from Los Alamitos had been at Seal Beach helping a friend celebrate a return from a honeymoon. According to the report given Sheriff Jackson of Santa Ana and Constable Murillo of Los Alamitos, a keg of nails was opened up at Seal Beach and was brought back to Los Alamitos to be completely empty of its contents.

The celebrants retired to R. H. Miller's poolroom, where the keg was set up and put to flowing.

After a time someone ventured a new game. It took. Someone was pounced upon, and while the victim was held a pair of clippers was run over a part of his scalp. It seemed not to be good form to give a clean haircut, just a warlock left here and there better fitted the rules of the game.

John Johnson decided to go home and go to bed. His absence was noted, and straightway his room was sought. His door was broken in, and his bed pounced upon with such force that it gave way. Johnson was held while a furrow was clipped straight from his forehead to the back of his neck.

Constable Murillo called up Sheriff Jackson, and along about 3 o'clock this morning the two officers put an end to the celebration. This morning Paul Smith, Dod Newcomb, John Johnson and John Doe McDonald were charged with disturbing the peace and R. H. Miller with keeping his pool room open after hours.

Charge Embezzlement
E. G. Rurup, a druggist of Orange, made a complaint accusing George McDonald with embezzling $2.60. The complaint states that McDonald was an employee or agent of the Orange Drug Co.

Juvenile Court
Alleging that Keith Helmick, aged 5 is in danger of growing up to become a dissolute person, Esther Figueroa has sworn to a complaint against the mother of the child charging her with contributing to the delinquency of the child.

Found Him Guilty
Loydie Briesley of Los Angeles stood trial today on a charge of driving on the left side of the street, but was convicted with plenty of evidence to spare. Briesley was driving toward Tustin on the state highway on July 5 and his machine struck a motor cycle ridden by Harrison Mallicote, an employee of the San Joaquin Fruit Co. Mallicote was thrown and had his leg broken. The chief witness against the automobile man was L. M. Cummings, a highway engineer of Laguna Beach. He talked to Briesley and took the number of his car. Briesley testified that he did not leave the right side of the road, and that the motorcycleist ran into him. Other witnesses said there was a blockade, and Briesley turned out of the line. He paid Justice Cox a fine of $25.
